Important Information about Document Submission

Read over this section about document submission to avoid making common application mistakes!
Failure to meet these standards may result in the delay of application review or even denial from the program due to insufficient documentation.

1. All submitted documents must have your relevant identifying information visible and ALL pages of a document must be submitted, even if the last page is blank. All pages need to be provided in order to ensure that no information is deliberately concealed or omitted by an applicant.
2. If your financial conditions change during the application period (i.e. you get a new job, open a new line of credit, or any other incidences that affect you household income or debt), you must inform Habitat as soon as possible. The omission or concealment of pertinent financial information can result in the disqualification of an applicant from the program.
3. You can reach out to Habitat staff via the phone number or email listed below.

If you have any questions or concerns about document submission or the application in general, please reach out to the following individual:

EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT NOTICE

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that monitors compliance with this law concerning this company is the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G St. NW, Washington, DC 20552, and the Federal Trade Commission, with offices at FTC Regional Office for the Western Region, Federal Trade Commission 901 Market Street, Suite 570 San Francisco, CA 94103 or Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580. The law does not require you to disclose income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance payment if you choose not to do so. However, because we operate a Special Purpose Credit Program, we do request and require, in order to determine an applicant's eligibility for the program and the affordable loan amount, information regarding the applicant's marital status; alimony, child support and separate maintenance income; and the spouse's financial resources. Accordingly, if you receive income from these sources and do not provide this information with your application, your application will be considered incomplete, and we will be unable to invite you to participate in our Home Repair program.

Privacy Statement and Notice

At Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento, we are committed to keeping your information private. We recognize the importance applicants, program families, tenants, and homeowners place on the privacy and confidentiality of their information. While new technologies allow us to more efficiently serve our customers, we are committed to maintaining privacy standards that are synonymous with our established and trusted name. When collecting, storing, and retrieving applicant, program family, and homeowner data – such as tax returns, pay stubs, credit reports, employment verifications and payment history – internal controls are maintained throughout the process to ensure security and confidentiality.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

We may disclose the following kinds of nonpublic personal information about you:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, or income;
- Information about your transactions with us or others such as your loan balance or payment history; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency such as your creditworthiness or credit history.

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento employees and volunteers are subject to a written policy regarding confidentiality, and access to applicant data is restricted to staff and volunteers on an as-needed basis. Information is used for lawful business purposes and is never shared with third parties without your consent, except as permitted by law. As permitted by law, we may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to the following types of third parties:

- Financial service providers, such as mortgage servicing agents;
- Nonprofit organizations, government entities, or other subsidy providers; and
- Other Habitat for Humanity affiliates.

If you prefer that we do not disclose non-public personal information about you to nonaffiliated third parties, you may opt out of those disclosures, that is, you may direct us not to make those disclosures (other than disclosures permitted by law). If you wish to opt out of disclosures to nonaffiliated third parties, you may contact Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento's Director of Homeowner Services, Rochelle Disney, at RDisney@habitatgreatersac.org or (916) 440-1215 Ext. 1123.
